

Office of the Mayor
Village of Bloomingdale
PROCLAMATION

Janet Stann Day
November 30, 2017

WHEREAS, Janet Mucha Stann was born in Chicago on November 30, 1917 to parents Mary & John Mucha, who had nine children. Janet only finished eighth grade because in those days education for girls was not considered important, so she babysat and helped clean apartments. But as she was motivated to learn, she did; and

WHEREAS, as a young adult, Janet worked at Marshall Field on State Street. She met Stanley Stann through a friend. As she helped him through college, the family joke was he owed her so much money, he had to marry her. The couple was married February 22, 1941 in Chicago. They moved to Wisconsin as Stanley started his Military service as a captain. They had four children, three boys and one girl, each of whom was born in a different state or country; and

WHEREAS, Janet enjoyed baking, walking and working at the church. No matter what base or state they lived in, she always volunteered for the church; she remains a very devout woman, serving the Lord and helping others. Janet and Stanley had 43 wonderful years together. Their four children went on to give them 10 grandchildren, who blessed them with 15 great-grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, Janet was still delivering Meals on Wheels at the age of 95 and driving people to appointments in Oscoda, MI, where she had resided for 40+ years. Now living in Bloomingdale with her daughter & son-in-law, she is still active doing chores, going out to eat, and never missing church. She continues to create a legacy for her family – be a leader, not a follower, be kind and thoughtful to others.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that on the occasion of Janet's 100th birthday, I, Franco A. Coladipietro, Mayor of Bloomingdale, do hereby proclaim November 30, 2017 to be Janet Stann Day in Bloomingdale. Her strong spirit, her thoughtfulness for others, her love of life and the Lord, are an inspiration to us all. We join her family and friends in wishing Janet a very happy 100th birthday!

In witness thereof I have herewith set my hand and caused the seal of this village to be affixed.

Mayor _____

Date November 19, 2017